

Extension of application period for the 2019-2020 applications for undergraduate programs

The management of the University of Rwanda informs the general public that the period of applications for undergraduate admission for 2019-2020 Academic Year is extended to 14th July 2019.

All candidates who have difficulties in completing their applications are advised to contact Campus Registry for support. The online application system will close on 14th July 2019 Midnight. For this reason, all candidates must arrange to pay and submit applications before that date.

Note: Applicants willing to apply as private sponsored candidates are reminded to take this opportunity to submit their applications for this Academic Year. There will be no separate period for them.

Done at Kigali, 2nd July, 2019.

Professor Nelson IJUMBA

Deputy Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs and Research